

KLIRONOMIA HELLENIC FOLKLORE IN CANADA

CAMPUS AND CONFERENCE GUIDELINES

The Klironomia Hellenic Folklore in Canada (“Klironomia”) Dance Conference, its elected supervisors, volunteers, and its designated drivers, will take every precaution for the safety of every participant, chaperone, instructor, and musician. They will not be responsible for any individual or group supervision for the duration of, or following the seminars located at the University of Toronto Scarborough Campus or at the Gala at The Metropolitan. In addition, they will not be responsible or liable for loss of property or damages, or any incident, accident, any injury to anyone’s person, or death while participating or travelling to and from any of the conference designated locations.

All participating minors under the age of 18 years must be accompanied by a chaperone or instructor over the age of 25 years to a maximum of eight (8) participants per. Any participating minors not accompanied by a chaperone or instructor must provide a Klironomia Consent Form available upon request.

The following guidelines must be adhered to and will be assumed to be acknowledged by all participants / chaperones / guests, by their attendance to any and all Klironomia events and locations:

- Drug use is strictly prohibited at any time for the duration of the conference / seminars and events.
- Any damages to personal or public property that occur due to foul play will be the sole responsibility and liability of the person(s) involved.
- Participants are to be respectful to each and not hinder the learning of others.
- Insubordinate behaviour directed to the guest instructors, musicians, other participants or to the Klironomia Committee will not be tolerated.
- There will be no alcohol consumption in public. Toronto Police, the organizers and the group instructor will enforce their own penalties whether you are of legal drinking age (19 years) or not. Underage drinking will not be tolerated.
- Resident housing must keep the noise level confined indoors at 11pm - scheduled event notwithstanding.
- Only a Klironomia committee member builds, controls, and extinguishes the bonfire. The bonfire can only be lit during the scheduled event.
- Violation of any of the above-mentioned guidelines may result in group or individual removal from all conference activities and being sent home at the participants’ own expense.

Each participant is accountable for his or her own actions. Any behaviour resulting in the defamation of Klironomia may lead to expulsion from the conference and immediately being sent home at the participant’s personal expense. In the event of a medical emergency, the supervising members of Klironomia will arrange for transportation to the nearest hospital or medical facility at their sole discretion.
